

Give the title of the summer school.

Give the url of the summer school website.

When and where will the summer school take place?

Give a short description of the summer school.

Describe its overarching (scientific and educational) aim, the target audience, and the structure and coherence of the curriculum. Maximum 1500 words.

Give a short description of the summer school (continued).

Describe its overarching (scientific and educational) aim, the target audience, and the structure and coherence of the curriculum. Maximum 1500 words.

Give a short description of the summer school (continued).

Describe its overarching (scientific and educational) aim, the target audience, and the structure and coherence of the curriculum. Maximum 1500 words.

Describe the relevance of this summer school for and/or its contribution to the mission of the Van Riemsdijk Foundation.

Maximum 250 words.

Who is the main applicant of this proposal?

Provide name, affiliation, and professional status (e.g. professor, postdoc, etc.).

List all other members of the organizing committee.

Provide names, affiliation, and professional status (e.g. professor, postdoc, etc.).

Alongside this submission form, you should submit a course schedule for the summer school, which lists in detail how many courses there are, when they take place, what type of course it is (beginner/intermediate/advanced), and who will be teaching it.

I will submit a detailed course schedule along with this submission form.

Alongside this submission form, you should submit a budget for the summer school, which lists in detail all expenses and all sources of income for the summer school. The budget should be balanced and specify which costs are to be covered by the VRF-summer school grant.

I will submit a detailed budget along with this submission form.

In completing this application, the applicant confirms that to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information in this application is complete and correct. They will inform the Van Riemsdijk Foundation immediately if the proposed summer school cannot proceed as foreseen or if any major change occurs that affects this application. This includes changes to the format of the summer school (e.g. a shift from a physical meeting to online or hybrid).

I agree.

The Van Riemsdijk Foundation assumes that any research carried out in a context that it (co-)funds is done so in compliance with the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity.

I agree.